And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. It is not surprising, then, if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.

Who's Your Master?

We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do. And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me.

For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

So I find this law at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. For in my inner being I delight in God's law; but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me. What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death?

So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in my sinful nature a slave to the law of sin. (Romans 7:14-25 NIV)

A painting depicting a dove with human hands as wings, flying over a crowd of people with their hands raised. The scene is set against a background of a cracked, mosaic-like surface. The dove's wings are formed by two human hands, one on the left and one on the right, reaching upwards. The dove's body is a light blue color. The crowd below is rendered in a dark, textured style, with many hands raised in a gesture of praise or prayer. The overall mood is one of liberation and spiritual freedom.

So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (John 8:36 NIV)
